Outreach

CALDWELL FOOD PANTRY

Sundays in November, please bring MAC & CHEESE for the food pantry. Leave your donations in the back of the sanctuary.

If you would like to help the Outreach Committee by delivering the monthly food collection to the Caldwell Food Pantry, please see Christine Waddington or Tracy Voca. The pantry is located at 14 Park Avenue, Caldwell.

CHRISTMAS CARDS FOR BRISTOL GLEN

Do you have Christmas cards (with envelopes) left over from previous year and don't know what to do with them? Consider giving them to Bristol Glen, the United Methodist Community in Newton. They will be distributed to residents there so that those on a limited income can remember family and friends. There is a box in the back of the sanctuary until Nov. 11.

There are a number of individuals and families in Caldwell who will not have much of a Thanksgiving without our help. In the back of the sanctuary, there will be a board with Post-its with items that are needed to fill baskets. Please take a Post-it or two. Bring the items in by November 18. If you are contributing a small, frozen turkey, please place it in the large refrigerator on November 18. The baskets will be delivered to the Caldwell Food Pantry on Monday, November 20.

We will once again provide gifts to local and nursing home residents. Take a card from the "tree" in the Narthex. Purchase the item and return it, wrapped, by 11:00 a.m. on Dec. 9th. Put it under the tree and check your name off the list.

Our local seniors are asking for lap blankets. The Bristol Glen residents will be receiving Wicker Remote Baskets. The baskets have been pre-purchased so you will be able to pick one up at church for $8, bring home to wrap and return on Dec. 9. Please see Tracy Voca with any questions.
